

Information for our international guests

Technical-Scientific-Committee (TSC): Meeting Subgroup Production and Brewing Technology on Monday at the Confertainment Center, room "Traumpalast"

Transportation Hotel – Confertainment Center: You can use the complimentary "EP Express" skytrain. Operation hours: Monday, 11 March, 9:00 – 00:30 / Tuesday, 12 March, 7:45 – 15:30 / Wednesday, 13 March, 7:45 – 16:00. If there is no train at the platform, please use the local telephone box. The transfer time is about 6 minutes. The walk from the Hotels to the Confertainment Center is about 2 km.

Parking: Free parking is available at the hotels. Another complimentary parking site is available directly at the Confertainment Center. By car, follow the signs to the main entrance and then follow the signs for "Reserviertes Parken / Reserved Parking".

Train: The next train station is "Ringsheim". Distance to Rust 5 km (Taxi recommended).

Name badge: Please wear your personal name badge anytime during the congress. It is your entrance ticket to all congress activities.

Get-together on Monday evening: Meet colleagues who have already arrived in the foyer of the Confertainment Center. Start at about 18:00, end 0:00. Beer and food will be provided. Note: The "EP Express" from the Confertainment Center to the hotels will be closed at 0:30. The walk back is about 2 km.

Technical visit Kronenbourg (Tuesday): Departure of the buses immediately after the end of the lecture at 15:45 from the parking lot in front of the Confertainment Center. You can leave your conference papers at your seat in the hall for the following day.

The transfer time to Obernai (about 70 km) is 1 hour. All participants of the tour are required to wear their own safety shoes. Other safety equipment is issued locally. All tours are conducted in English. Following the tour, the buses continue to Strasbourg for dinner. If you are arriving by car: Boulevard de l'Europe, 67210 Obernai, Industrial Zone (Z.I.), then enter at the main gate to the visitor car park.

Alsatian evening (Tuesday): After the Kronenbourg visit, you are invited to an Alsatian evening with tarte flambée and beer from the Brasserie Le Tigre in Strasbourg (5 Rue du Faubourg-National, 67000 Strasbourg, France). As the brasserie is located in a pedestrian area, we will get on and off from the busses at the city's official bus parking lot and walk to the brasserie (about 600 m). You can leave your safety shoes in place on the bus - please note the bus number that is attached to the front of the bus's windscreen to help you find your place on the way back. Departure in the restaurant around 22:45, so that we can start the return journey to Rust (about 50 km) with the buses at 23:00.

We do not offer a bus transfer from Rust directly to Strasbourg.

Wifi: A free wifi is available at the convention site. Password: [REDACTED]

Event App: Download our official event app at vlb-event.plass.net (Android and IOS). Available also in the app stores of iTunes and Google (key word "VLB Event"). It provides useful information about our congress (participants, exhibition, program, presentations). Your individual access code was sent to all pre-registered attendees by email already.

Presentations: Our English-speaking participants receive handouts with a translation of the German presentations. They are also available in our event app.

Simultaneous translation: The majority of the presentations will be given in German. We provide a simultaneous translation into English. In addition, you will receive translated handouts of the presentations (depending on the permission of the speaker). Please pick a receiver with headphones when you enter the congress hall.

Please do not forget to return your receiver and headphones after use so that they can be recharged properly. If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact our staff.

Lunch and refreshments: On Tuesday and Wednesday a light lunch will be served. Coffee, soft drinks and beer are available throughout the breaks.

Evaluation questionnaire: We would appreciate your feedback very much. Please use the evaluation section in the event app.

We wish you a pleasant stay and an interesting event in Rust!
